

PG 2017 Curriculum vitae

Name: Pedro Pereira Santos de Andrade Gomes

Born at Lisbon, Portugal,

In 24/01/1961

Graduated in 1987 in Medicine from the Lisbon New University with specialization in general surgery and head and neck oncological surgery, with competence attributed by the Order of physicians in management of health units.

Postgraduate degree from the Catholic University of Lisbon in Health Unit Management year 2004 and attend a three month training course in public management at 2009 from National Administration Institute, has attend several other medical, management, informatic and statistic courses.

Has been admitted at Lisbon Cancer Portuguese Institute (IPO) in 1991 worked first as resident at general surgery service and, since 1998 till today, at Head and Neck Surgery Service. At the year 2000 worked at the “Centre Hospitalier Régional Universitaire (CHRU) de Lille” for 8 months at the endocrine surgery service.

In 2004 has been invited to work for the Minister of Health to develop an Integrated National System for the Management of Waiting Surgery Lists – designated SIGIC.

In 2006 has been invited to work with Central Health Administration (ACSS) to Expand SIGIC and to develop several other programs. Has maintained the connection to ACSS till today, being now working in the development of SIGA an Integrated Management System for Access to Health Care at all levels.

Is responsible for the functional specifications of various computer applications currently operating at ACSS.

At the IPO, is specialized in the treatment of oral and cervical cancer, performing regular surgeries and participating in multidisciplinary consultations. Annually we perform 2 courses for training specialists in oral, salivary and thyroid cancer.

He published several articles, participated in several conferences and is co-authored in several books.